dedication

To: Mr. Donald Archambeau, assistant superintendent at Roosevelt High School, we dedicate this 1953 Bulldog. Mr. Archambeau, a gallant and scholarly man, has been a great addition to the administrative Staff at our high school. He is always on hand to guide students in the best ways he knows when their best friend has apparently deserted them. The friendly and warm personality of Mr. Archambeau, has made him a close and much respected friend of everyone here in the halls of R. H. S. whether a faculty member, student, or visitor.

SENIOR class history

We take you back, into the dim past. We take you to the fateful month of September, 1949 when, after eight long and tedious years, we took our first step to freedom. We entered the freshman class of Roosevelt High School.

On September 23 at 9:45 a.m., we elected our leaders. They were Jil Cicotte, president; Winston Suiter, vice-president; Betty Gordon, secretary; and Neal Saunders, treasurer. Our class sponsors were Mrs. Irene Delaney and Mr. Robert Beckman. That year we chose to save our money for future revolution.

As our plans for freedom swiftly progressed, we entered into our second step which was the sophomore class. In September, 1950 we again elected our leaders for the ensuing year. They were Betty Gordon, president; Dale Cartier, vice-president; Beverly Martin, secretary; and Thelma Fritz, treasurer. In order to conceal our subversive activities, the class went on a hay ride, and a sleigh ride. While these happy events were taking place, our underground agents advanced toward the third step of our dastardly deed. The sponsors, Mr. Hauk, and Mr. Hofrichter, were busy helping us for the future. The class chose to attend Walled Lake for their final activity of the year. Thus ended step number two.

The following year found us still plotting. We elected Ed Nelson as president, Beverly Martin as vice-president, Margaret White as secretary, and Connie Blainey as treasurer. The sponsors were Mrs. Johnston and Mr. Greenwood. During this year we held the annual Home-Coming Dance. We decided, as we had previously, to save our funds for the fourth and final step.

As seniors, we worked swiftly toward our goal. Our sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Hauk and Mr. Cargo, aided us in founding our part cell. In the course of the functions of the students party, we established many traditions of the school which we hope will be handed down to other senior classes. The first of our traditions was the introducing of election campaigns. During our campaign we elected Comrade Larry Boes as premier, Lorraine Ramirez as Vice-Premier, Beverly Martin as Commissar of the Secretariat, Betty Jane Reamer as Commissar of the Treasury, and Neal Saunders and Betty Vittone as Genrelissimos of Entertainment (by the leadership of these glorious heroes, we accomplished our end). Our other traditions which we established were the Home-Coming Dance and the Senior-Faculty Basketball Game in which, by political diplomacy we allowed the teachers to defeat us. These activities were merely more ruses to conceal our real purposes. In order to show our complete accord with the faculty, we showed great industry in preparing for our Senior Play. Through all these trials and tribulations we remained stalwart and upright in our cause. We made our final plans with our espionage agents on the night of the Senior-Junior Prom. We had already gathered our arsenal of weapons while on the Senior trip at Gaylord, Michigan. On the night of June 18, we at last overthrew the faculty and completed the glorious revolution. On that night, we graduated. Freedom was achieved.

The Home Ec Club was re-organized in Oct. of 1952, by Mrs. E. Hauk. At the first meeting the girls elected officers, decided upon dues, and chose a committee to write a constitution.

During the first semester the girls had a hayride, and a Christmas party.

Among the activities during the second semester was the Valentines Dance, a ceramic demonstration, a trip to Wayne County Health Department, and a fashion show, showing the change in clothing from grandma's day to modern times. To end the successful year, all the members went out for dinner and to a show.

The Junior Home Ec Club was first organized this year, by Mrs. Hauk. The club consist of only ninth graders.

As the 1952-53 school season began, the member of the Student Council, who were elected by their class mates, got right down to work. At their first meeting, the member elected officers to head the Council.

The Council began its activities this year by giving the first dance in our new gym. The dance, which was named, "Student Council Hop," was given in order to raise funds for the school paper, The Bulldogs Bark, and the Debate Club. The dance came off in great style and was a big success.

The Student Council also drew up a set of recommendations for student behavior. These rules concerned the hall problem, and the school lawn. Since our school building has been increased, the Student Council set up a new schedule for hall monitors. More students have been placed on duty and this has helped greatly in the decrease of disorder in the halls. Throughout the year they have helped Schedule dances, given by the various clubs and classes.

The members of the Council, ended their term in office by holding a magazine drive to raise money for the stage curtains in the gym.

The officers of the Varsity Club were picked at their first meeting. The club made a good selection choosing Eddie Nelson for club president.

The qualification for being a member of this club is: being a boy who has earned a letter in a sport.

One of the activities sponsored by the organization was the V-Hop. This was held in the latter part of February.

The members of the club, in order to make money, sold pop, potato chips, and candy bars at some of the football and basketball games.

The third project of the club was the sale of red and black beanies with ROOSEVELT BULLDOGS on them. This sale was a huge success and made a large sum of money for the club.

The initiation for the new members of the club was held in November. Some of the things the new members had to do were: wear a red V on their forehead, take commands from old members and finally to push a marshmallow across the gym floor with their noses. The last one across the room had to eat the marshmallows.

The club is sponsored by the two coaches, Mr. Scott and Mr. Parfitt. The coaches have done a wonderful job of bringing the sportsmen of Roosevelt together.

mixed chorus

The High School Chorus was organized in the Winter of 1952 by Mrs. Campeau, music instructor.

This year the chorus has developed splendidly into fine group. The students have worked fairly hard, and most of them take their music instructors seriously.

During the past year they have taken part in various programs. Such as: entertaining the parents, they took part at the Open - House at school, sang in the P. T. A. Christmas party at McNair, sang Carols for the students at Xmas time, gave a Spring concert and they will also sing for graduation.

The Chorus has visited the Masonic Temple, to listen to concerts twice this year.

Considering the newness of the group, Roosevelt has a perfect right to be proud of the job this young group has achieved.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The varsity cheerleaders this year consists of three seniors, four juniors and one sophomore. Rose Ann Lombard and Carol Dunmyer are leading the girls this year as co-captains.

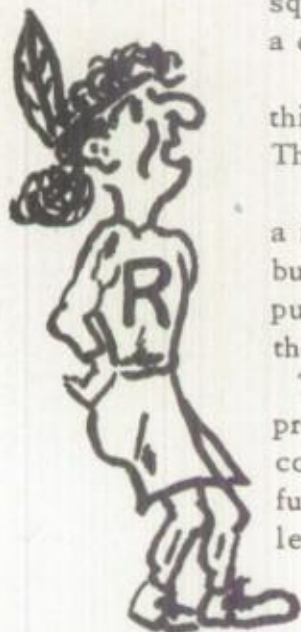

The girls cheered at all the football and basketball games. They also cheered at some of the tournament games.

In the first of November the girls of the squad went to the University of Michigan for a cheerleading exhibition.

The varsity cheerleaders have new sweaters this year. They are white with the red trim. Their skirts are still black.

The girls have made over and written quite a few new cheers. The cheers are very clever but the way the cheers are done is what really puts them over and makes them such a hit with the students.

The purpose of the cheerleader is to improve school spirit and get more students to come to the games. The squad has done a wonderful job and are incomparable with any other cheerleaders.

The reserved squad are the varsity cheerleaders to be and already they are doing a fine job. There are six sophomores and one freshman on the reserve squad.

The girls chose Phyllis Pully to lead them as captain.

The reserve squad cheer only for the reserved team, but for the tournament games the reserve and varsity squads combined to cheer the team on.

Believing in the saying "Practice Makes Perfect," the girls practiced every night. Through hard work and a lot of practice the girls have proved to many a student that this saying is true.

Debate

The Roosevelt Debate team has a very successful season this year being one of the District winners and brought home a wall plaque for their Alma Mater. Under the coaching of Mr. Marvin Hauk, the squad won five out of six tries in their seasonal debates, taking two debates from Warren High School, two from Inkster High School, and one from St. Clair Shores.

On February 24th, the Roosevelt debaters were represented in the District Debating Tournament at Howell, Michigan where they were edged out by Allen Park.

Tuesday, March 24th, Roosevelt played host to three other schools for a Spring Forensic Contest. Roosevelt won a first in the Declamation contest given by JoAnn Tafelski. Robert Bennett and David Fox were seconds in the Original Oratory.

On Friday, April 24th, the debaters were honor guests at a Forensic Luncheon given at the University of Michigan by the Detroit Free Press to all the District Winners of the state. There they watched the state tournament championship debate.

The Hi-Y Club was organized at Roosevelt this year by Mr. Hauk. Membership was open to all boys in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade.

The officers of the club are: President: Charles Huddleston, Vice President: Gerald Gutekunst, Secretary: John Korte, Treasurer: Albert Karoub, and Chaplain James Poindexter.

THE PURPOSE of the club is to create, maintain, and extend through the school and community, high standards of Christian character.

THE FUNCTION is to help boys achieve a more Christian way of living by conserving and strengthening democratic traditions---cooperating with other groups of young people to achieve these objectives.

THE PLATFORM is clean----living, speech, athletics, and scholarship.

On December 5th and 6th, Bill Gorlay was sent to the Hi-Y legislature at Lansing. The purpose of the legislature is to acquaint Hi-Y members with state government.

They also sent John Korte, Albert Karoub, and Eugene Lewis to the United Nations in New York, to acquaint the boys with the work of the U. N.

On April 30th and May 1st the senior class presented their annual senior play entitled "It's A Great Life" in the school auditorium. The play was directed by Miss Mary Jane Jarratt, and was a three-act farce comedy which centered around a typical American family whose life was complicated and humorous. Larry Boes played the father Mr. Wilson, Bill Gourlay was his son Tommy, Fred Michel his friend Ted. The daughter and her friend were Johanna McWilliams and Connie Blainey respectively. The family Aunt was Ruth Ann Jobe, David Fox played the intellectual young man, Jerry Jones the local wrestler, and Maggie White was the local actress.

It was an evening of fun unfolded when Mrs. Wilson, acted by Lorraine Ramirez, and the Aunt connived to have Mary go to a dance with Wilbert Wiggins, while the boys arrange her a date with "Muscles" O'Rourke. Miss Alstead Billings (Betty Vittone) enters the scene interviewing Mary, and adding calamity to the picture. Meantime Dad and Theresa are caught rehearsing for a local play. The boys pull off a stunt of impersonating a woman to add humor and the unbelievable outcome gave everyone a tale to tell for days.

The price of the play was 75¢ for everyone and the seniors netted a profit that was put toward their senior trip.

The 1952 track squad had a great season winning 2 meets. The schools that fell to their defeat were Wayne St. Mary and Lowrey. Lavel Rogers placed first in all 880 yd. meets including the state meet, which makes him the state champ in the 880 run. Dave Morgan placed first in all the meets for the shot put, but he failed to place in the regionals. Guy Berry and Willie Wells both attained a first in the 440 yd. at the meet against Wayne St. Mary. The track team at R.H.S. has increased every year, and their records are improving also.
